

THE CONSENT CHART

What does consent mean?

Consent means giving someone permission. Consent can be saying "yes" or "no". If someone says "yes" they are giving someone permission to do something.

WHAT DOES CONSENT SOUND LIKE?

- "Yes!"
- "Sure!"
- "Yes Please"
- "Of course"
- "I will allow that"
- "That sounds good"
- "That's okay with me"
- "Okay"
- "Alright!"

Consent must sound positive and enthusiastic

WHAT CAN YOU SAY IF YOU DO NOT GIVE CONSENT?

- "No"
- "I don't feel like it right now"
- "Maybe another time"
- "I don't like that"
- "I don't want that"
- "No thank you"
- "Nah, I'm good"
- "That makes me feel uncomfortable"

WHAT DO WE NEED TO ASK CONSENT FOR?

Touching other people
Giving a hug
Giving a kiss
Sharing
Secrets
Borrowing someone's things
Being in someone's personal space
Taking or sending pictures of someone else
Sharing someone's personal information

WHAT IF...

You really want a hug but the other person doesn't?
The other person says no but they are smiling?
The other person says no but you think they might want it anyways?
You're in the middle of a hug and the other person changes their mind?
The person let you hug them yesterday but they don't want a hug today?
The person is asleep or doesn't know?

It's NOT consent! You do not have permission and may not do it.

WHAT IF SOMEONE DOES SOMETHING WITHOUT YOUR CONSENT?

If someone who doesn't have your consent touches you, uses your things, or does something that makes you feel uncomfortable, it's not your fault!

Be sure to tell a parent, teacher, or trusted adult what happened and who did it.

Remember, it isn't your fault. Tell an adult you trust so they can help you and make sure people don't touch you without your consent or make you feel uncomfortable again.
